Arizona State University 1999

Arizona State University is an internationally recognized metropolitan Research I University. The main campus is located adjacent to downtown Tempe. This campus consists of approximately 650 acres, including academics, athletics, and administrative/operations facilities, as well as residence halls. More than 4,800 students can reside in the 13 on-campus halls. Another 1300 students reside in 15 on-campus Greek houses (19 fraternities and 14 sororities). Life on campus continues to be enhanced by the two-story, 135,000 square-foot Student Recreation Complex, which has served the recreational needs of its students. In addition, the 18 hole Karsten Golf Course, located on 153 acres east of the intersection of Rural Road and University Drive, is used for golf classes and for training and competition by ASU's men's and women's golf teams. The course has hosted national competitions and is open to the general public on a daily fee basis.

The University supports 86 programs leading to a Bachelor's degree, 97 programs leading to a Master's degree, and 52 programs leading to a Doctoral degree, and a Law degree Program. These programs are offered in the following colleges/schools:

Architecture and Environmental Design	Fine Arts
Liberal Arts and Sciences	Public Programs
Nursing	Graduate College
Law	Business
Extended Education	University Honors

ASU Research Park

In addition to the main campus, the University owns and controls approximately 115 acres on several sites around Tempe. The ASU Research Park is owned by the Arizona Board of Regents. The 320 acre park has been planned to accommodate approximately 2.5 million square feet of research and office tenant space. The park is intended to promote a close working relationship between industry and the academic community.

Libraries

ASU Main Campus Libraries have 3.1 million bound volumes and over 6.1 million volumes in microform in the following facilities: Hayden Library, Noble Science and Engineering Library, Ross-Blakley Law Library, Music Library, Architecture and Environmental Design Library, and University Archives on the Tempe campus. These facilities are accessible from an office/home computer.
